Africa Update

Bill & Judy Kirsch

Fall 2020

Next month Bill will be in Lomé, Togo for the 2020 combined graduation of the West Africa Advanced School of Theology and the Pan-Africa Theological Seminary. It will be a smaller graduation this year because COVID will be preventing many from traveling. Getting to Togo may be a challenge, but because these students have worked so hard and have overcome so many obstacles, Bill wants to honor them for completing their studies. Please pray for safe travels for all concerned.

This photo is of a recent Africa's Hope chapel service that we continue to hold each Tuesday morning by Zoom. This is becoming a familiar and valuable tool that helps us continue to train and relate to students and colleagues even as we practice social distancing.

We recently held a teaching session for our East Africa Tanzania cohort via Zoom. Two courses were delivered so that these students can continue with their program of study even in the midst of this pandemic. Here is a photo of some of the students.

Please continue to hold PThS up in prayer as we plan for two sessions in early 2021, one in Nigeria and one in Togo. We continue to train these leaders, even in these challenging times. Thank you for your prayers!

Sincerely,
Bill & Judy Kirsch
