Now he who supplies seed to the sower and bread for food will also supply and increase your store of seed and will enlarge the harvest of your righteousness. You will be enriched in every way so that you can be generous on every occasion, and through us your generosity will result in thanksgiving to God.

Greetings in Jesus,

It is very late for a fall newsletter, but the second half of this year has been an overwhelmingly busy time. We want to bring this final update of the year to you before the opportunity is gone.

During this season of thankfulness, we want to express to you our grateful heart for your partnership in training leaders from across Africa. II Cor. 9:10 & 11 conveys well our sentiment for all of you who so faithfully support our work. Your generosity certainly results in thanksgiving to God, both from Judy and me, and from the students who are blessed and trained because of your giving.

In July, I was in Togo where four courses were presented. The students were all thankful for the training they received. Two of the faculty were new to PThS. The students enjoyed their teaching and expressed how much they received from their classes that was very practical and useful to them.

In September, I was in Tanzania for a session with our East Africa students who took two courses. For some, these courses completed their coursework, and they will begin writing their dissertations. These are key leaders in the church and will be instrumental in ensuring sound doctrine and protecting the church from error and false teachers.

In November, I was back in Togo for our graduation on the WAAST campus. There were 123 total graduates. Five of those received their PhD Degrees from PThS pictured to the right. In the middle is the widow of James Dema, who received Dr. Dema's degree on his behalf. Our dear brother passed away from COVID shortly after successfully defending his dissertation. Please pray for Christine and her family.

As we look forward to celebrating the birth of Jesus, may the joy of HIS salvation fill your heart. My prayer is that God will bless you in every way for your faithfulness to Judy and me as we work to raise up leaders for the Church in Africa. Thank you so very much for your generous support! We are so blessed! May God's abundant blessing be yours in every way.

Sincerely,
Bill & Judy Kirsch
