Our Mission

PATHS exists to prepare servant leaders to equip the church of Africa to fulfill God's mission in the power of the Holy Spirit.

Everything we do at PATHS is measured by our mission. Every decision we make, every course we offer, every teacher we invite to teach must fit our mission!

A Picture Is Worth a Thousand Words

Facebook can be a wonderful thing. It allows me to see what our PATHS students and graduates are doing. Recently Dr. Jimmy Kuoh (far R) posted this picture of himself, Faith Ojo (middle), and Dr. David Akonsi (far L) pictured with two of our final year BTh students at the West Africa Advanced School of Theology (WAAST), in Lomé, Togo. They were teaching several classes of students from five African countries. Jimmy and David are PATHS graduates and Faith is finishing her dissertation with PATHS. This is a picture of our mission fulfilled! (2 Tim. 2:2)

In fact, PATHS graduates make up an increasing number of the faculty of WAAST. During the current academic year, 13 PATHS graduates and 11 current PATHS students are scheduled to teach at WAAST. PATHS graduates are also teaching in many of our other schools across Africa. Your support enables our work of making disciples (Matt. 28:19) through the influence God has given us in these leader's lives.

Thank you so very much for your faithfulness, which allows Judy and me to continue to train these African leaders. They are duplicating their lives in the lives of so many others who are called to preach the gospel, plant churches among the unreached, and give desperately needed direction to the African church.

Sincerely,
Bill & Judy Kirsch
